Madison's High Noon Saloon will host a benefit show for Dane County's busiest food pantry. Four bands will play from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 30, at the live-music venue, 701 E. Washington Ave. Proceeds will be donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry in Madison.

For this live-music benefit, High Noon Saloon will present The Dirty Shirts, the Oak Street Ramblers, Chett & the Chore Boys, and Long Wallet the Nailbender. The evening will feature music spanning honky tonk, roots music, old-time classics, bluegrass, and low-key bluesy stylings. There will be a $5 cover charge, and those 21 and older are invited to attend the benefit.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul operates the busiest food pantry in Dane County out of a location just off Fish Hatchery Road in Madison. The pantry, which distributed food valued at more the $1.1 million in the past 12 months, operates on a customer-choice basis. Within guidelines and hosted by volunteers, clients shop the pantry for food items their families prefer and will eat. This successful model minimizes waste, makes effective use of available resources, and honors the dignity of all involved in the food-distribution process. The pantry is open five days each week, and between 60 and 100 families receive food there on a typical day.
